TAFT AGAIN SIZZLES ON GRIDIRON BROILER

Value asked but indignantly refused. Slightly damaged. Stored in room; basement of cellar.

"S. W. HURRIED."
With all the formality of an executive session of the Senate the nominations of Thomas C. Noyes, of the Washington Star, and Oscar K. Davis, of the New York Times, for membership in the club, were received and confirmed, but not until the two scared candidates had been subjected to a rigid cross examination as to their opinions of those present and matters in general.

Taft Enjoys the Roasts.
President Taft enjoyed to the limit the darts directed at himself and his cabinet members. Indeed, there were few if any who did not get placed on the gridiron.

The speakers were President Taft, Secretary Dickinson, Speaker Cannon, Senators Taylor, of Tennessee, and Chamberlain, of Oregon, and Governor Marshall, of Indiana.

The banquet hall was a veritable flower garden in which apple blossoms and American beauty roses predominated, while the dinner itself was a marvel of culinary art.

VAUDEVILLE AND PICTURES

Three acts, instead of two as usual, will be on the Bell theatre's vaudeville bill for the first three days of this week, beginning tomorrow afternoon. In addition to these acts, each of which is said to be of high order, the management promises a "surprise package," the nature of which will not be made known until tomorrow.

Besides the enlarged vaudeville program, a moving picture feature that is deemed to be the biggest thing of its kind ever seen, has been secured. This film is entitled "Napoleon Bonaparte and the Empress Josephine," and the Edison people say that it is the most pretentious production they have ever attempted. A great deal of money was spent in staging and costuming the production, and every detail is said to be absolutely correct.

Another feature of the picture program is "A Cry From the Wilderness." As usual special music for the three days has been arranged.

The Bell was literally packed last night when the bill for the latter half of the week, which included the sprightly little Proctor sisters, was given for the last time.

Cereal Exports.
The export business of this port for the week ending yesterday was above the average, the statement is issued at the custom house yesterday showing that the total value of cereals shipped from the local terminals during the week was $52,554. The cereal was all shipped to London, Eng., and included 3,568 barrels of flour, 34,286 bushels of corn and 1,702 barrels of corn flour, composing a portion of the cargoes of the British steamships Westleydale and Daltonhall.

HELD UP, ROBBED AND SHOT IN HIS OWN OFFICE

Thompson's Bookkeeper is First Tied. Robbers Escaped But Are Afterward Captured.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 17.—James M. Thompson, vice-president of the Thompson Bridge Company, on entering his office today with a sack containing $3,200 was confronted by two masked men, one of whom shot him through the chest, inflicting a serious wound. The men escaped with the money but were captured.

During the shooting William Rosenberg received a stray bullet, but was not seriously hurt.
Mr. Thompson had just drawn the money from the Bank of California and when he entered the office he discovered his bookkeeper tied to a chair. On turning his head Thompson was confronted by the masked men, who promptly fired on him. Then grabbing up the sack, the men made a dash for a buggy nearby, which one of the robbers, with the money, entered.

The fleeing man was pursued by policemen in an automobile and finally was captured.

POWHATAN AT SHIPYARD.

M. & M. Liner to Undergo Extensive Minor Repairs.
The Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company's steamship Powhatan, which arrived in port yesterday from Norfolk, was towed to the shipyard late yesterday afternoon for repairs.

While at the yard the liner will undergo extensive minor repairs and have a new main smoke stack, and petticoat installed together with the smoke box connections to same.

It is expected that the work on the Powhatan will be completed in a few days, as the new stack is already spliced at the yard and can be placed in its position in a short time.

Why Is Fat

Is it because one is born with the tendency? Or is it one of "life's trials," or is it due to just plain hearty appetite? The doctors say not any one of these phrases, the question correctly. They say fat is because the fat person's digestive organs are defective. Such organs, it seems, don't change into heat and energy, as they should. Instead the food fats pass on into the system unconsumed. Hence fat layers accumulate under the skin in quiet spots, such as the chin, abdomen, shoulder, blades, etc.

Let that digestive defect be corrected and the formerly fat person goes back to his or her original shape. You can prove this on yourself. Seventy-five cents will secure from your druggist one of the large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets recently licensed for sale by the Marmola Company, Dept. 756, of Detroit, Mich. Take one of these tablets after each meal and at bedtime and the demonstration starts right there. Very soon you will experience a new sense of digestive comfort and a delightful feeling of increased energy which should be followed in due season by a gradual, uniform decrease of your fat.

During the demonstration period you eat and drink as formerly, remember. The tablets need no help from either dieting or exercising, nevertheless the daily loss should approximate ten to sixteen ounces a day.
Now, WHY is it you get thin? Why is it the fat just seems to slip away leaving your flesh smooth, firm and wrinkleless? Simply because Marmola corrects that digestive defect, thereby stopping further fat accumulation and enabling the body forces to harmlessly dissolve what has already gathered.

HIS CALL A BUSINESS ONE.

Poor Old Beggar Was Not on This Particular Occasion Looking for Charity.

The prosperous wholesale grocery dealer had sold out his business preparatory to departing for the west to live. He was reflecting, the next morning, on the prospect of getting a good price for his house, which the day before he had advertised for sale, when the doorbell jangled merrily. "Sir," said the maid, putting her head in at the library door a moment later, "it's the old beggar from the corner near your store, sir."

"Old Joe, the beggar, eh?" rejoined the retired business man, taking from his pocket a coin. "I presume the old fellow missed my customary contribution this morning and is come for it. Here, give him this dollar."

The maid went away with the money and again returned. "I gave the dollar, sir," said she, "and he seemed very thankful for it; but he says he'd like to speak a moment with you on business, sir."

"What business can that old beggar have with me?"

"He says that if you can bring the price of this house down to $20,000 cash, he'd buy it, sir!"—Judge's Library.

SEVERAL KINDS OF ACCENTS.

Observant New Yorker Noted the Different Pronunciations of Singers in the Choir.

"In so cosmopolitan a city as this," began a man who was on his way from a choral service at one of the New York churches, "I fancy a choir master's duties are doubly hard."

"How so?" asked his companion, who, though less observing, had sat through the same service.

"Because of the various pronunciations of the members of the choir. Today I heard distinctly four different methods of pronouncing the word mercy. It took me some time to figure them all out, but I happened to know the line 'Lord, have mercy upon us,' etc. There were some who said 'moley,' and they seemed to be in the majority; others sang 'murey' with all the brr to the r that they could get in; still there was some one, a soprano who pronounced it as if it were spelled with a double e, 'meercy,' and some one gave it a French finish and said 'mercy.' Now I don't doubt that choir master has worked over those people in his effort to get a uniform pronunciation, but so far, at least to my perhaps too critical ear, he has failed to do so."

Collar Button Defender.
The collar button has been libeled. Since it first came into being it has provided the writers of jokes for the comic papers with a large share of their material. That it possessed a remarkable tendency toward losing itself has been accepted almost as an axiom.

Facts have come to light which show that the collar button has been maligned. A man in the employ of the Burlington railroad has worn one collar button for 28 years. It has stuck by him without any undue precautions against loss and has never shown a tendency to wander.

This man says he has always treated his collar button kindly, has never sworn at it nor blamed it for his own faults. His idea is that if mankind accords due respect to the collar button it will reciprocate.

Not for Her!
"With one wave of my wand," says the fairy, "I can make you grow young again."

"Excuse me," replies the woman, "I decline your kind offer. If you can bring youth to me at my present age, all right; but I positively refuse to travel back through pyrography, the first stage of bridge, the habit back, the straight front, balloon sleeves and all the rest of the fads I can remember."—Life.

Giving Work to All.
Miss Eastman, secretary of the New York branch of the American Association for labor legislation, says that somehow a plan must be devised that will give men the right to work. Surely, she says, it is an unintelligent society which will let men who want to work starve, beg or steal. Surely this country is prosperous enough to afford an eight-hour day six days in the week for everybody.

Criminologists Interested.
Countess Boos Farrar, a niece of Archbishop Farrar, has secured 75 acres at Spring Valley, N. Y., and will build there a home for the children of criminals, to make a trial of the theory of inherited crime, as well as to give homes to the waifs. She gives all her time to the care of those sick and in want.

His Magical Coat.
Jack the Giant Killer boasted of his inviolable coat.
"My wife can't ever give it to a tramp," he said.
